
In force for refugees

A community relations trip to a refugee camp in Kabul was made by Combined Forces Command-Afghanistan to promote goodwill and help those in need. The camp had 52 families and more than 300 children who were in need of food and clothing. Many of the refugees live in an old Russian-made building. More than $400 dollars of food was delivered along with clothing, shoes, toys, and school supplies. The children and family members were very grateful for the necessities.
