RaceElPaso

Attention race fans, RaceElPaso is making another run at the Brickyard, and El Paso is in the driver's seat. NASCAR driver Chad Chaffin will lead the way, as an El Paso themed NASCAR qualifies for the Allstate 400 at the Brickyard Aug. 6, using Ernie Elliott motors. The RaceElPaso effort will benefit the El Paso Diabetes Association. For $10, you can sign your name on the show car at Casa Ford, and on the decals that will be applied to the actual race car and backup car that will race on the track at Indy. All proceeds generated from the sale of signature boxes will be donated to the El Paso Diabetes Association, to benefit area children who have been diagnosed with diabetes. The goal of RaceElPaso is bringing exposure to our city, while providing community outreach in the process.

Domestic violence awareness

The Family Advocacy Program is now scheduling classes for the required annual domestic violence awareness training (AR 608-18) for all units. Domestic violence is a sensitive subject many of us try to overlook. Based on an increase in referrals it is something to be made aware of. It's everyone's responsibility to come together as a community and take preventive measures. Our mission is to prevent spouse and child abuse, to encourage reporting, protect victims and to treat those affected and to ensure personnel are professionally trained to intervene in abuse cases. For more information or to schedule a briefing for your unit, call Yadira Velasco at 569-5058 or e-mail Yadira.velasco@us.army.mil.
